

Bubba's Smokehouse & Spirits Outlines BBQ Catering Delivery Options in Paso Robles

November 20, 2026

PASO ROBLES, CA - November 20, 2026 -

Organizers planning food for a group gathering often face the same logistical hurdle: coordinating the meal's arrival at the event location so it is ready when guests are. From office luncheons to family reunions, hosts must account for order size, timing, and the address where the food needs to be received. Bubba's Smokehouse & Spirits addresses those needs through its published barbecue catering delivery service, which brings packed Central Coast-style orders directly to customer locations across the area.

According to the restaurant's catering page, Bubba's delivers packed catering orders rather than simply preparing food for counter pickup. This option is intended for hosts who prefer to receive their meal at the event site. The service centers on BBQ catering delivery for gatherings in Paso Robles, allowing organizers to plan around a scheduled drop-off instead of arranging their own transportation from the restaurant.

The website currently lists a $200 food-order minimum for delivery, with delivery fees starting at $35 and potentially increasing based on mileage to the event location. The restaurant notes that prices are subject to change, so organizers are encouraged to confirm current figures when placing an order. Reviewing these terms early helps hosts budget accurately and avoid surprises as an event date approaches.

The catering menu gives hosts several selections to discuss when arranging an order. Meat options include sliced smoked tri-tip, sliced beef brisket, pulled pork, and smoked pork ribs, each prepared in the restaurant's slow-smoking tradition. Side selections include Bubba's Beans, coleslaw, and garden salad. Organizers can combine meats and sides according to guest count and preferences when they contact the restaurant.

Roger Sharp, founder of Bubba's Smokehouse & Spirits, explained how the delivery option fits alongside other service formats. "Delivery suits hosts who want the food brought to their location without managing a trip to the restaurant," said the owner Roger Sharp mentioned in this post. "Packed delivery drops off the order ready to serve, which is different from restaurant pickup, where the host transports the food, and from our separately listed full-service staffed catering, which involves setup and on-site service."

To confirm delivery availability, timing, and total cost, customers should provide their guest count, event date, delivery address, requested arrival time, and preferred food selections. Supplying this information allows the restaurant to verify whether delivery can be arranged for the requested slot and to calculate an accurate quote that reflects distance and order size. Because delivery provides packed food, it does not automatically include buffet setup, serving staff, equipment, or bar service, which fall under separate arrangements.

Bubba's Smokehouse & Spirits is a barbecue restaurant in Paso Robles, California, founded by local entrepreneur Roger Sharp, who began with a cinnamon-roll concession trailer at the Mid-State Fair before developing a family-friendly smokehouse. The kitchen slow-smokes its meats for hours using a signature wood blend and offers dine-in service along with catering for group events. Additional details on Paso Robles catering delivery appear on the restaurant's website, where organizers may reach out with their event specifics to confirm availability and receive current pricing.
