

Kicker's Highlights Dog-Friendly Waterfront Dining Patio in Morro Bay

November 24, 2026

MORRO BAY, CA - November 24, 2026 -
Kicker's, a seafood restaurant on the Morro Bay Embarcadero, is drawing attention to its dog-friendly outdoor patio as a dining option for residents and Central Coast visitors who want to share a meal near the water with their dogs. The patio, which overlooks the bay, allows guests traveling with pets to settle in for lunch or dinner while taking in views of the working harbor.

The patio sits at the center of the restaurant's appeal for pet owners. Located at 885 Embarcadero, Morro Bay, CA 93442, Kicker's offers dog-friendly waterfront dining in Morro Bay from its outdoor seating area, where dogs are welcome alongside their owners. The feature is specific to the patio rather than the restaurant's indoor seating, giving guests a defined space to relax with their companions.

The waterfront setting shapes much of the experience. The Embarcadero location places diners alongside the bay, where boats, birds, and open water form the backdrop to a meal. For local dog owners out for a walk along the harbor, or for couples and families exploring the Central Coast with a pet in tow, the patio provides a place to pause without leaving a dog behind.

Seafood anchors the menu, with offerings that include chowders, seafood available by the pound, pastas, burgers, and a raw oyster bar. While the food provides the reason to visit, the restaurant frames the dog-friendly patio as the element that makes a stop convenient for guests who are spending the day outdoors with their dogs.

Roger Sharp, the owner, noted that the patio reflects the way many guests experience Morro Bay. "People come to the Embarcadero to be outside, and a lot of them have their dogs with them," said Sharp. "The patio gives those guests a spot to sit down by the water and enjoy a meal without having to cut their day short."

Sharp added that the setting and the menu are meant to work together. "The bay views are a big part of what brings people here, and being able to welcome dogs on the patio fits the kind of casual, coastal visit that so many of our guests are looking for," said Sharp. As the owner Roger Sharp mentioned in this post, the patio is an existing part of how Kicker's serves its community.

Guests planning to arrive with a dog are encouraged to contact the restaurant in advance to confirm patio availability and to review any applicable pet policies before their visit. Because outdoor seating can vary with weather and demand, checking ahead helps guests plan accordingly.
