Brand Awareness and Visibility Offered by Local Agency

July 01, 2016

July 01, 2016 -
SoCal Marketing Consultants out of Los Angeles, California is pleased to offer their new Brand Optimization Service to help local businesses build Brand awareness and expand visibility for more customers and sales, TBA.

The service is delivered through their clients' Blogs, Social Media, Business Directories, Online Reviews, and Video Marketing, just to name a few.

Through their core services; Website Optimization, Account Setup, and Content Marketing, Jeannine Barcarse and Diego Valencia from SoCal Marketing Consultants promise to improve their clients' search engine rankings, expand their brand's visibility online, increase online traffic, increase brand recognition and authority, gain more conversion opportunities, and boost their clients' brand loyalty.

"To increase you brand's strength, your visibility must expand. You must seize your brand's online visibility and expansion opportunities through our Brand Optimization Service," says Jeannine Barcarse.

More details about these services, including pricing tiers, available upgrades, any special offers etc., are to be announced on a near future date through press releases, their YouTube / Facebook Channels, and or Website. SoCal Marketing Consultants' Brand Optimization Service is part of a 1/2 off launch series that will begin sometime in July 2016.
