Amazon's Lightning Deals Bring Extraordinary Summer Products

July 15, 2016

July 15, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Tisha's Choices, a Vancouver, Washington based business is gearing up for the big Amazon Lightning Deal Days. Amazon has invited them to submit their QuickTemp Instant Read Digital Cooking Thermometer as one of the featured products. This means that product prices get slashed for the Lightning promotion slot periods, and customers get really great deals.

Spokesperson for Tisha's Choices, Jillian Gregg states, "Amazon has invited Tisha's Choices to participate in their Lightning Deals but they don't tell anyone when the product deals are going to be presented online. You just have to be on the lookout for the products you want and strike while the getting's good. We're very pleased to be invited to offer deep discounted prices to Amazon customers, and with Amazon Prime also coming up, we have a whole array of summer goods to choose from with more appealing pricing."

Amazon has had several years of superb Prime Days and Lightning Deals that are completely focused on giving customers great shopping experiences, so they should be on the lookout.
