July 07, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

With over 10+ years in the wholesale gemstones and natural rocks and stones business, family-owned and operated, Friendly Crystals' exclusive semi-precious gemstone and exquisite jewelry products are not only uniquely beautiful but are said to have strong healing properties.

The husband and wife duo started the business a decade ago and travel to shows and conferences across USA and Canada. They will be displaying their unique company-branded products, including gemstone bracelets, beaded bracelets, shamballa bracelets, chip bracelets, malas, chakra healing kits, children's gemstone kit and more at The Atlanta International Gift & Home Furnishings Market® from July 14-18, 2016.

"A large variety of our products are carded/labeled in English & French. Each card contains gemstone meanings & descriptions to attract and sell to end consumers along with a versatile ready to display pack, especially designed to either hang on the wall or stand on the table/counter top. The visual display helps in quick sales and we've received overwhelmingly positive response from our valued suppliers on how it's helped drive sales and convert customers," says Tyeb Sachee, CEO of Friendly Crystals.

"We endeavor to maintain consistent high quality, and through our personalized service have developed lasting friendships with many of our happy repeat customers. We are able to customize products as per customer requirements and we try our best to source products at customer request."
