Mooresville, North Carolina based Pro Pad Inc. has announced the release of a series of stainless flag mounts that are designed for Indian Motorcycle bikes. Recently added to the series is a flag mount that fits the .51" horizontal bar of the luggage rack of the motorcycle.

Mike Enzwiler, spokesperson for Pro Pad, states, "Indian Motorcycles are great American products and Pro Pad is releasing a series of stainless steel flag mounts made specifically for them. This flag mount is designed to fit the .51" round bar commonly found on the Indian luggage racks."

The .51" Extended Style Flag Mount can be seen at <http://www.thepropad.com/extended-style-indian-rack-mount/>. The flag mounts are manufactured of solid stainless steel, so they will not rust, tarnish, or peel. "We always try to offer the very best quality, and we feel that these flag mounts fit with our goal," states Enzwiler.

The flag mount is designed for the round bar that is commonly found on the Indian Pinnacle Tour Pack luggage rack, such as those found on the Indian Roadmaster. The mount will also fit the Pinnacle solo rack.

Enzwiler states that the pole will extend from the rack about 1.25 inches, and is hand polished for a mirror finish. Options include a 9 or 13 inch pole with decorative or standard topper, and choice of a highway or parade flag, as well as a limited lifetime warranty by Pro Pad Inc.
