July 19, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

PDX SEO, an online marketing company headquartered in Portland, OR, is proud to announce that they have received a number of rave reviews on Google Plus. This highlights just how well their own reputation management and search engine optimization (SEO) services are truly effective. For the company, reputation management is a huge part of SEO, and is something that good SEO companies not only offer as a service, but work on for themselves as well.

Robert Harden from PDX SEO says: "Having an excellent online reputation is vital to the success of any business. This is something that we tell our clients whenever they work with us. But that goes for ourselves as well. We practice what we preach and lead by example, and have a very strong focus on our own online reputation as well. We're so grateful, therefore, not just for the fantastic reports we hear about our services from our customers, but also for the help they have given us in building our own reputation."

At the heart of PDX SEO, as shown on their website at <http://www.pdxseo.net>, lies the idea of helping clients dominate their specific market. To achieve this, they offer a wealth of services, personalized towards the needs of their clients. They do not offer one size fits all solutions, as they understand that every business is unique in its own right. This, and more, is something that has been greatly appreciated by their customers. "I called PDX SEO back in December to help me market my restaurant in Portland," says Carrie A. on the Google+ site. "Today, we are showing up in the "3 pack" for various searches that our customers use to find us now. Very happy with the results we've gotten thus far."

The other reviews are similar to Carrie's. They also mention how impressed they were with how quickly the PDX SEO star is rising, considering that they are a relatively new company. That said, the staff have an impressive combined experience, as the company's LinkedIn profile demonstrates. Perhaps most important, however, is the fact that the company delivers results, and that is what their clients are after.
