Landlords are sometimes unaware as to what kind of cover they need and that they require specific Landlords insurance to protect themselves and their business. Oncover Insurance Services Ltd, operating out of London, United Kingdom, has announced that it is offering this type of cover and can even provide a specialized landlord portfolio insurance for clients, meaning all properties will be covered in one place on one policy. This saves Landlords time, saves them money, and gives them the flexibility to manage their business.

Andreas Patikis from Oncover Insurance Services Ltd says: "More and more people are becoming landlords, investing in buy to let properties. Many of these are not landlords by trade and therefore don't quite know what insurance they need to have in place. Insurance, in these cases, is required not just for their protection, but will also be a condition imposed by their mortgage lenders. We are ready to help people find the insurance that they need."

Oncover provides an account handler for each client. Their experience and connections with insurers allow them to advise on insurance and provide an efficient bespoke service to their clients. As a minimum, it is required for people to take out landlord building insurance as a condition of their mortgage, but Oncover recommends they also take out a range of other covers. That said, each package that they offer can be customized to the needs of the individual landlord.

Those who have worked with Oncover Insurance Services Ltd have been very happy with the service they have received. "I had been using a different broker for our portfolio insurance for many years and Andreas contacted me to quote," says a representative from the Smart Housing Group on Oncover's website. "I was very pleased with the substantial saving provided and subsequently moved our portfolio to Oncover Insurance. We are very happy with the personal service Andreas and George provide and the good knowledge they have in the property insurance sector."

Rental property insurance can be a complex world to some. Oncover is ready to help people to navigate this world, thereby making sure they are properly covered, at the right price. They encourage everyone to contact them for a free, no obligation quote as soon as possible.
