August 26, 2016

August 26, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Lemon Tree Financial in Harrow, Middlesex, UK, has announced a milestone celebration. The company recently stated that they are celebrating their 27th year in business, an important anniversary for the company and for their clients.

Mitul Patel, founder of Lemon Tree Financial, says, "We are proud to be celebrating 27 years of providing financial advice to locals in the Harrow region. We are now and have always been loyal to our clients, and this shows in the number of years that they have been returning to us."

Patel states that the company offers buy to let advice, and that new customers are welcome to read reviews on the company to get an idea of their satisfaction rating. He says that buy to let market has grown over the years and that the company has been offering advice to clients for the better part of three decades regarding this option.

"We are always here for our clients," Patel states. "Our goal has always been to provide professional advice to new and experienced landlords that perfectly fits within your needs. Those goals will never change, even over the next 27 years."

Patel says that while it is not at all uncommon for a business to be successful for nearly 30 years in the financial advisory industry, it is fairly rare to hold on to the same customers. He states that many of the customers that the company has now, they have had for quite some time, which has only helped to make their anniversary celebration even better. He states that they will continue to do what they have always done, which is focus on their customers and what's best for them individually, and that they hope to serve the Harrow region for another decade or more.

Patel states that those interested can read Lemon Tree Financial reviews, which offer more information on the company and what they do, as well as how customers feel that they have helped them over the years. More about the company can be seen on their official website.
