

Sweet 16 for BLH Interior Designs

July 25, 2016

July 25, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Decorating a space can be very intimidating for some. BLH Interior Designs is Redding CA Interior Decorator, and can help with that. This summer, they are celebrating their 16th year in business. Originally founded in 2000, BLH Interior Designs resides in Redding, CA. Redding, CA is about 2.5 hours north of Sacramento, in Shasta County.

BLH Interior Designs works on small and large projects. Founder and owner, Barbara Hall, has been helping clients with their residential and commercial projects for the last 16 years. She has worked on 4000 square foot residences, commercial buildings, and small bathrooms. Barbara Hall was born in Mt. Shasta, CA, but moved to Redding, CA when she was 3. She attended a small parochial school and then attended Shasta Community College in Redding, CA. While attending Shasta College, she earned her degree in General Education and an Associate of Arts in Art and Design.

She has always had a knack for design, but her hobby became a business in 2000. She began working hard on the design of a beautiful 4000 square foot home in Redding, CA. This is where BLH Interior Designs really took off. Husband, and webmaster, Chris Hall says, "Barbara has a unique style that is all her own, but she listens so well to the customers. I'll admit that I was nervous when she took on such a big project, but Barbara has shown time and time again that she knows what she is doing. It's no wonder why she's made it 16 years in a tough business."

When working on her last big project, Cafe Pagato, she was able to realize the client's dream of building a concept that she calls "Modern Industrial." Cafe Pagato owner, Jenny Melchor, was very pleased with how the project went. Jenny stated, "Starting up a brand new coffee shop, my partner and I were looking to create a space that was unique, comfortable, and affordable. We were so fortunate to be connected to BLH Interior Design! Barbara worked with us from day one for over a year in all phases of design, construction, and even advertising."

With all of this experience and momentum, here's to another 16 years for Barbara Hall and BLH Interior Designs.
