July 26, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Inside Out Hyperbaric and Wellness Center officially opened its doors in Saint George, Utah. The Center was founded by Ryan Brinkerhoff and David Haacke, DO, big enthusiasts of alternative methods of treatment of certain health conditions and health rehabilitation.

They both believe in extensive benefits of Hyperbaric for restoring vitality, youth and helping with sports injuries.

More than 200 people showed up on the day of grand opening. They had a great opportunity to have a tour of the center and learn about hyperbaric chambers and the InBody 770 machine. Five of the first people who decided to purchase treatment packages received a generous half off discount.

Local radio station, Star 96 FM, broadcasted from the center. The Grand Opening event was live-streamed on Facebook and Periscope. Social media was flooded with posts and tweets about the event and several lucky winners for giveaway prizes.

Pat Matthews won the biggest giveaway prize - two tickets to the ROCK OF AGES concert in Las Vegas. 2 lucky winners won tickets to Broadway show Tarzan in Tuacahn Theater (<https://www.tuacahn.org/Online/default.asp>). People enjoyed pizza provided by local sponsors.

Ryan Brinkerhoff stated, "I am pleased with our grand opening. We had an opportunity to show the local community, medical and holistic practitioners, massage therapists and local athletes our facilities. Because of the incredible success of the grand opening we are planning special action for veterans with PTSD as paying forward."

The main goal of the center is to provide the general public with the technology and nutritional support and know how to help them achieve their highest levels of personal health.

The InsideOut Hyperbaric and Wellness Center welcomes new clients. They can schedule a complimentary consultation by phone or online. Working hours are: Monday - Friday, 6am - 8 pm. Saturday 9 am - 5 pm.
