A company in Vancouver, WA, that provides various products, is proud to announce that they have teamed up with Country Living for summer BBQ food ideas. Specifically, they have looked at the idea of having condiments at each table without having to buy a dozen bottles of each condiment. To support this, the said company has launched 3 ounce food grade silicone bottles with leak proof caps and suction cups. These translucent bottles can hold all necessary condiments, thereby ensuring guests can see what is inside as well.

Jillian Gregg, spokesperson for Tisha's Choices, says: "We're so proud to have been featured on Country Living. The summer season is upon us, which to us, means two things: travel and BBQs. Our bottles are suitable for both. First and foremost, they are TSA friendly, so you can use them during your travels. Secondly, they are perfect for those summer BBQs, holding whatever condiments you want to share on the table."

Tisha's Choices has created a number of products that allow for stress free travel. Their goal, however, is to create products that are multifunctional. For instance, their hanging toiletry bag is useful in the home, but has also been made so that it can go through TSA security. Additionally, their beach hat set is perfect not just for the beach, but also to look cool and nautical in other situations. This is one of the reasons why their silicone bottles are proving to be so popular, as they serve for both travel and BBQs, or other similar situations.

Those who have used the silicone bottles, which are included as standard in one of their travel toiletry bags, have been full of praise for the bottles. "It includes three food-grade silicone bottles that comply with TSA sizes for liquid carry on," says TwoDoves on Tisha's Choices website. "Leak proof seals guard against spills from air pressure change. If spills do happen, the plastic is easy to clean up."

All Tisha's Choices products are available through Amazon. A huge wealth of positive reviews have also been left on the different products, none more so than on the silicone bottles. With summer season well and truly here, it seems to be becoming even more popular.
