Pro Pad Inc., a popular motorcycle parts and accessory provider in Mooresville, NC, has announced that they have launched their latest in the Detachable Rack in the Raxx Series. The Raxx series is a brand of motorcycle accessories that many enthusiasts have grown to love and trust. The new rack comes in black and polished stainless steel and is designed specifically for 2009+ touring bikes with a four point docking station. The rack is available through <http://www.thepropad.com/triangle-quick-detachable-rack-in-black/>.

Mike Enzwiler from Pro Pad Inc. says: "Our new Raxx series detachable rack is a great product. We know that everyone will want one, which is why we have even decided to offer docking station kits for those who don't yet have one on their motorcycle."

While the rack is available in black and in polished stainless, the polished stainless version that can be seen at <http://www.thepropad.com/triangle-quick-detachable-rack-in-polished-stainless/>, is proving to be particularly popular. Weighing just 10 lbs, it will not affect the performance of a bike at all. From docking point to top of rack, it measures just 4". It is also fitted with quick release latches. Pro Pad Inc. also offers a five year warranty on the rack and a one year warranty on the finish.

The Raxx range of products is ideal for Harley Davidson owners. They are known for their fantastic quality, durable construction, and ease of use. "We love the full Raxx series," adds Mike Enzwiler. "We are always looking to expand it, because it enhances the enjoyment of biking. The ability to take whatever you need on your bike is essential to truly enjoy the lifestyle, and we're happy to be able to play a part in achieving that."

Pro Pad Inc. is one of the country's leading companies for motorcycle flag mounts, motorcycle flags, and motorcycle seat pads. All the products they create are 100% made in the USA, although they do ship all over the world. The company, which is family owned and operated, has existed for 17 years and is made up of motorcycle enthusiasts who simply want to increase performance and enjoyment of biking.
