August 02, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

bobuCuisine is renowned in the United States for their premium quality homeware items. The company's products are synonymous with style and functionality, attracting increasing consumer demand as more people search for value for money and innovative kitchen and dining items. bobuCuisine's Juice Boost Infusion Pitcher ranks as one of Amazon.com's top sellers and now the company is offering a special discount offer.

"We are delighted to be able to offer our customers a $5 discount off the already low retail price of our Juice Boost Infusion Pitcher," stated Mr. Gagnon, CEO and founder of bobuCuisine. "Customers can take advantage of this special deal by using the coupon code INFUSRR5. This will automatically remove $5 off the purchase price when you checkout. We deliver throughout the United States, so everyone can take advantage of this latest offer," added Mr. Gagnon.

The bobuCuisine Juice Boost Infusion Pitcher has an elegant modern design created to suit all décor. The glass exterior, secure stainless steel lid and the unique cylinder insert deliver a crisp and stylish appearance, combined with functionality that surpasses similar products on the market today.

This one of a kind glass pitcher enables users to infuse their beverage with fruits, fragrant herbs, vegetables and other healthy produce to create flavorsome additive-free drinks. The ideal size to fit in the fridge, this pitcher is encouraging people to drink more water and stay hydrated and healthy; as highlighted in this recent review:

?I really love my infuser pitcher! It arrived in perfect condition and I've been enjoying it ever since. I had been trying to drink more water without much success until I got this pitcher. It makes water so much more enjoyable, refreshing, and is healthy, too! Would buy it again in a heartbeat and am considering purchasing it as gifts for my children and their children! Thanks for such a great product!?
