

One Of Top Home Builders In Perth Launches Brand New Website

August 30, 2016

August 30, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Wildec.com Homes, a business in Mandurah, WA, Australia, is proud to announce the launch of their brand new website. As one of Perth's most respected home builders, they felt that their company required a greater and more appropriate online representation. Their new website is now live and highlights various important details about the work that the company does.

Klaus Wilde from Wildec.com Homes says: "Our company has a singular aim, which is to create dream homes for our clients in a satisfying and rewarding manner. We have been doing this for some time now, and we felt the time had arrived to have a more widespread online representation, leading to the development of our new site, as well as social media campaign. We're happy to see that the new site is already having an impact."

Wildec.com Homes, with website at www.wildec.comhomes.com.au, has a range of different design options available that can be adapted to the needs, lifestyles, and preferences of their clients. Their new website has an extensive range of images available surrounding these design options, and prospective clients can email the company and receive a reply within no more than 24 hours.

The work that the company has done has been greatly appreciated by their many clients. "We took the big step of building our first home with Wildecom Homes and we know we made the right choice," says Adrian and Shelley K. on the company's new website. "From helping with the design, to selections and not to mention the build time being quicker than expected, we couldn't be happier with the level of service. The building supervisor was always happy to take us through each stage and explain what was happening which helped ease any worries we may have had. We were priced a complete home, with no hidden costs, which was different to our experiences with other builders. From the date our slab went down we moved in to a finished home 8 months later. We would like to thank the Wildecom Homes team for their honest, professional approach. Thank you."
