August 18, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Mañé Center, a well known chiropractic office based in Tampa, FL has added another name to its illustrious team of qualified specialists by introducing a new doctor. Dr. Renée Edwards D.C., who is a Board Certified Chiropractic Physician, is expected to bring diversity to the team at the center, thanks to her unique set of skills as well as her experience.

Dr. Edwards was born and raised in Horseheads, New York and is currently licensed in both her current and previous states of residence (Florida and New York). Upon completing her undergraduate education at West Virginia University, Dr. Edwards attended the New York Chiropractic College which is located in Seneca Falls, New York. Furthermore, she also completed her chiropractic residency in Buffalo, New York.

Some of the most notable highlights of her resume include her membership of the Phi Chi Omega chiropractic honor society, as well as her certification in Manipulation Under Anesthesia. Apart from that, Dr. Edwards also has a certification in whole foods nutrition while being a certified kinesiotaping practitioner as well.

Most important of all, Renée Edwards, D.C. is a member of the New York State Chiropractic Association, Florida Chiropractic Association, as well as the American Chiropractic Association. Needless to say, she has plenty of wisdom and experience under her belt and is resultantly certain to perform as a successful addition to the office.

The rest of the staff at Mañé Center seems to be pleased with the introduction of the new doctor as her skills and expertise will add more depth and versatility to the services on offer at the office. ?Dr. Edwards is vastly experienced in a range of subjects related to health and wellbeing, specifically chiropractic care? said a staff member at the facility. ?She is undoubtedly a welcome addition to our experienced team.?

Mañé Center is best known for its chiropractic services, which include High Power Laser Technology, Spinal Decompression, Proprioceptive Rehabilitation, Orthotic Support, Massage, Radio Frequency Ablation and other drugless forms of treatments. Other than these, the center also provides Pain Management, Auto Accident Treatment, Acupuncture, Functional Medicine, as well as Weight Loss solutions. Needless to say, a vast variety of services are available at the facility.

For those looking to relieve pain caused by any injury, ailment, accident, or condition, Mañé Center is an effective chiropractor choice. Contact them now at 813-935-4744 to schedule an appointment.
