August 19, 2016

August 19, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Logan, Utah - The distinguished leader of employment agencies in Logan, UT, Express Employment Professionals, recently revealed the secret to the raise in unemployment through a survey conducted in 2015.

In hopes to draw applicants from the community to their Job Openings page, Express Logan has launched a new campaign, Hot Summer Jobs, in order to fill vacant positions in Logan, Preston, Brigham City, Tremonton, Hyrum, Smithfield, Richmond, and Lewiston.

The survey questioning the primary reason jobs may go unfilled, released April 20, 2016, was taken by 340 business who voted that "lack of available applicants" was the main contributor. Following, 26% said "lack of experience" and 15% chose "lack of hard skills".

"In Cache Valley, jobs go unfilled for two reasons," says Express Logan's owner, Doug Anthony. "One, employers wait too long to pull the trigger on hiring and lose the great candidates and two, most employers in the valley want a $15/hr caliber employee and only pay them $10.00/hr."

Express Logan's Hot Summer Jobs campaign hosted on their social media redirects users to their website's Job Openings page by promoting an available top job in the Logan area.
