Odessa, TX online marketing consultant Roy Wingate Business Consultants has been working closely with a new client, Houston Custom Pool Contractors <https://houstoncustompoolcontractors.com/>, and they have now published a kitchen video. As part of their contract, they have created the company's new website and are now engaged in promoting this through various tools. As such, they have helped create and publish the new video, which is specifically targeted for those who need an outdoor kitchen. The video, which is available at https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=9ng-0J1BS_c, has already been viewed multiple times, and the client is experiencing excellent results.

Founder and owner Roy Wingate says: "Houston Custom Pool Contractors is a very unique company that does far more than building pools. Rather, their goal is to create the outdoor space of their clients' dreams, effectively building small pieces of holiday destinations. One of their areas of focus is the outdoor kitchen, and they want to provide people with all the information they need to make the right decisions before they invest. The new video highlights some of the most important tips."

In the video, people are shown some of the possibilities for an outdoor kitchen. It also discusses the importance of finding an experienced contractor. However, there are several things that customers can already do themselves, before getting a contractor involved. These include finding the right location for the outdoor kitchen, calculating what the available budget is, deciding which extra features the space should have, picking flooring and roofing, and making safety plans. On many of these issues, a contractor like Houston Custom Pool Contractors can be of assistance.

"Working with Houston Custom Pool Contractors has been so much fun," adds Roy Wingate. "We've learned so much from them that some of us are now looking into how we can improve our own outdoor spaces. For the company, the goal is obviously to get more clients, but also very much to provide people with information on how they can make the right decisions for their own needs."

Houston Custom Pool Contractors, meanwhile, offers free, no obligation quotations to anyone interested in transforming their available outdoor space, be that with an outdoor kitchen, a pool, or anything else.
