Massey, Stotser & Nichols, P.C., a law firm in Birmingham, AL, is proud to announce that four of its partners have been given top legal industry awards. The Birmingham Business Journal has recently released its list of Top Lawyers of 2016 and three of the firm's lawyers have been included in the list. These are Anne Lamkin Durward, Stephanie Lanier Weems, and Kristin Sullivan. Meanwhile, Best Lawyers of America has named Randall Nichols and Anne Lamkin Durward as top attorneys in the practice area of divorce.

Rick Stotser, Senior Partner, says: "We're so proud that so many of our team members have been recognized for their excellent work. It really shows the hard work and dedication that we put into each and every individual case. Most of all, we want to thank our clients for their continued support and the trust that they have bestowed upon us."

Attorney Randy Nichols, a Senior Partner in the firm, has been named to the list of Best Lawyers in America for divorce cases, and likewise partner Anne Lamkin Durward. Divorce law is just one area of focus for the entire law firm, however, and all their services have been greatly appreciated. In fact, this is not the first time that Nichols and Durward have been recognized for their work. Rather, they are consistently seen as some of the best lawyers around, proving time and again that they are hard working and dedicated to each of their clients.

Attorney Anne Lamkin Durward is a particularly highly educated lawyer. This shines through not just in her wealth of bar registrations and professional body memberships, but mainly in the fact that she resolves her clients' cases in an ethical, emphatic manner. "We weren't surprised that Anne received the recognition as a divorce lawyer," adds Stotser. "She is such a nice and caring person that we have even seen the most hateful divorces and separations end up being quite amicable. There is just no one else like her."

Meanwhile, Attorney Stephanie Lanier Weems has also been making headway in the field. She also specializes in family law and is a member of various professional organizations. Together with colleagues Nichols, Durward, Sullivan, and others, she is helping to ensure families have a fair chance after separation, and to make these difficult situations slightly easier to bear. They are proud of the awards they have received and aim to show that these are well-deserved.
