Troy Warren, host of LetsTalkBusinessRadio.Com, announced today the launch of eBarterExchange.Com in Brooklyn, NY. Warren has appointed Martin Salama as the Brooklyn Trade City Ambassador. Martin coordinates Trade and Networking Events for business owners in the greater Brooklyn area.

Warren commented, "I am very excited for the Brooklyn members to meet Martin because of his vast experience in business, including his expertise as a certified business coach. In my conversations with Martin I discovered his advanced knowledge of barter will truly help the Brooklyn members leverage their goods and services and become more profitable."

Martin Salama can be reached at (908) 489-0435 to learn more about the Brooklyn eBarterExchange as well as arranging to speak about barter at business networking events.

Salama said, "I believe Brooklyn is a fantastic city to grow the eBarterExchange business. It's an up and coming city with great diversity and open minded business people."

eBarterExchange.com is launching in 81 major metropolitans and each has a Trade City Ambassador to facilitate trade and networking events in each city while the company supports the Members and Trade City Ambassadors from its offices in Chandler, AZ and Evanston, IL.

Warren commented, "I am truly excited to be launching the eBarterExchange network because it helps all business owners leverage their goods and services and increase their buying power and reduce expenses at the same time. The barter industry has truly helped business owners particularly in down economies like we have experienced since 2008. Barter transactions have climbed over $16 billion annually in the USA alone and there does not seem to be an end in sight."

Troy Warren is writing a book on all facets of BARTER and TRADE entitled "The Forgotten Currency - Barter For What You Want Without Using Cash" that reveals how to increase revenues and decrease expenses.
