

Temp Agencies in Bloomington, IN Help Raise Funds for Local Youth Center

September 01, 2016

September 01, 2016 -
BLOOMINGTON, IN - Six local charities will compete in a dance competition on September 24 to raise funds for their mission. One of the top temp agencies in Bloomington, IN, Express Employment Professionals, is collaborating with Rhino's Youth Center to kickstart their event.

The rules for the competition are simple. Each charity has to make three different dance routines to win the judges? hearts and raise the most money. Rhino's Youth Center created a GoFundMe campaign with a goal of $10,000.

Express Employment Professionals in Bloomington, IN had just announced that they would match up to $5,000 of contributions for the Rhino's Youth Center. Tim Tucker, an owner for the temp agency, said, ?We are thrilled to be able to provide matching contributions to Rhino's. My friend Brad has built an amazing legacy of serving youth in the Bloomington community and we want to make sure what he has built continues for years to come.?

This is the last big event for Brad Wilhelm as he leaves the youth center and he wants to leave a legacy. The job agency and youth center need the local residents? help to make that initiative happen.

Express is on a mission to put a million people to work and provide temp services in Bloomington, IN to local companies annually. In 2015, the temp agency generated $3.02 billion in sales and employed a record 500,002 people. For more details, visit www.expressbloomington.com. The Bloomington office, located at 116 S. Madison Street is currently accepting applications.
