

Express Employment Professionals Awards Scholarship to Local

September 01, 2016

September 01, 2016 -
BLOOMINGTON, August 30, 2016 ? Express Employment Professionals has awarded a scholarship to Cameron Johns, according to Tim Tucker, franchisee of the local Express office.

The scholarship was awarded on the basis of prior academic achievement and future potential, leadership and involvement in school and community activities, work experience and education and career goals.

?Express is committed to raising the level of education for both present and future generations,? Tucker said. ?This scholarship program will not only build on that future, it will help exceptional students like Cameron continue their education.?

Johns began his association with the temp agency when he secured an internship at Hoosier Energy. He has since progressed to Substation Designer. He is currently completing his degree in Electrical Engineering at IUPUI.

Express Employment Professionals is among the top temp agencies in Bloomington, IN and provides temp services in Bloomington, IN annually. In 2015, the temp agency generated $3.02 billion in sales and employed a record 500,002 people. For more details, visit www.expressbloomington.com
