A popular food blog, Mill House Natural Foods, recently published a blog post featuring Jenaluca Herb Scissors. The blog post offers a solution to problems people face while preparing herbs in the kitchen. It is titled "Cutting Herbs in the Kitchen Was a Pain in the Butt Until I Got These" and was published on August 26, 2016. It outlines a personal experience about being introduced to a pair of herb scissors which solves the problem of getting cut as well as saving time and frustration when preparing herbs in the kitchen.

Written in the first-person's voice, the blog post describes the writer's love of using herbs in various meals. It also speaks about how constantly getting cut on the index fingers when using kitchen knives, along with the long length of time it took, caused the writer to start avoiding the use of herbs.

These issues were said to be solved when the writer got a pair of Jenaluca Herb Scissors. Using the scissors, which has five sharp blades, significantly reduces the time it takes to prepare herbs due to the fact that two snips is equivalent to 10 knife chops. It also allows the user to have more control over the cutting process, which reduces the chance of getting cut, and the scissors also has soft-grip handles that are gentle on the hands.

?We love this blog post! It reflects the same feelings many of our other clients have. Once they start using our herb scissors, they fall in love and can?t live without them,? said Nancy, a company representative.

Jenaluca?s Herb Scissors are currently available to online shoppers and are made from heavy duty stainless steel. They promise users fast, professional results when using herbs to make garnishes and salads and for shredding vegetables, and they are also suitable for uses outside of the kitchen, such as art and craft projects. Additionally, they are easy to keep clean using the convenient cleaning comb that they are shipped with, which also double as protective covers for the blades, and they are also dishwasher safe. Reviews by shoppers have mostly been five stars and the product has been reviewed well over 900 times.

The blog post on Mill House Natural Foods invites people who are having problems with preparing herbs in the kitchen to try out the Herb Scissors from Jenaluca. They are currently available on giant shopping portal Amazon.com.
