October 07, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Scottsdale, AZ lead generation company, Mojo Global, proprietary software, My Big Fat List Builder, sifts through 40,000+ new prospects a day. This enables it to generate leads that are niched to an individual business' specifications. The software pulls in the perfect prospects, initiates the conversation, and helps build relationships. It even sets up sales appointments. The company is proud to announce that Mojo's client success stories on Facebook are building in number, with people hailing the benefits of the system.

Cory Michael Sanchez, co-founder of Mojo Global, says: "What myself and co-founder Ira Rosen have aimed to do is create a software package that cracks the LinkedIn code, enabling lead generation to become as predictable as the sunrise. What our software does is essentially ensure that our clients have their calendars filled every day with new leads. We're so happy to hear that people are benefiting from our system."

One of the things that has proven to be particularly popular is Mojo's "How to Pack Your Calendar with Qualified Leads" video. This video explains the ins and outs of the system, and how it can be used to generate leads on a daily basis. It is this video that has created such a huge buzz around the My Big Fat List builder system, leading to a wealth of positive reviews on Facebook.

"The experience with Mojo has been extraordinary," says Danyyal on Facebook. "My company was a startup (a writing firm with a lot of potential), but did not have the right set of tools to get it pitched to real, prospective clients. Mojo helped me take it an entirely different level, someplace I never thought I'd make it. Renee was an excellent resource throughout, right from her introductory Webinar to the system, she stuck with me throughout, guiding me personally wherever I needed help, and eventually led me to a lot of success."

Cory Michael Sanchez adds, "That is just one experience. For free access to Mojo's My Big Fat List Builder "Holy Grail of Leads" that allows you to pick and choose from up to 40,000+ NEW potential prospects per day, please contact us."
