

Chedall LLC Releases 7th Edition Of The Campfire Travel E Magazine

September 12, 2016

September 12, 2016 -
Chedall LLC, based in Wilmington, Delaware, has announced the release of the 7th edition of their Campfire Travel E-Magazine. The company provides articles, tips, and resources regarding resorts and campgrounds around the nation.

"We invite travelers to register with us," says a spokesperson for the magazine. "Registering allows you to connect with others via our community website, view our e-magazines, and gain information that could make all of your trips better."

The company states that resorts and campgrounds can have their business featured in the E-Magazine, and also listed on the search website directory to gain more exposure. Those interested in learning more about the advertising benefits can visit the company at https://campfiretravel.com/.

"Campers and RV enthusiasts can also win prizes from the competitions in the e-magazine," says the company spokesperson. "Those interested in joining the online community can register here to learn more about the magazine and what it offers to readers."

The magazine is dedicated to travelers and campers and offers information about a number of destinations and resources. The newest edition joins others that have provided a wealth of information to past readers. Travelers who register will receive the e-magazines, as well as access to various articles and videos posted by the company that give information on a number of camping and traveling topics.

The company states that their online community is free to join, and they hope that avid travelers will take the time to register and read through all of their past and present e-magazine editions. Past editions include topics such as camping activities for children, camping for beginners and focus on various states and their parks and camping facilities overall.

The company suggests that travelers and campers take a moment and join them at https://campfiretravel.com/search/, to be given instant access to their newest e-magazine edition as well as the various videos, news stories, and other resources that are offered on the site. Those interested in learning more or getting a look at the variety of topics offered in the e-magazines can visit the company on their official website for more information and to register.
