California Travel Agency Launches Luxury Vacation Club

October 17, 2016

October 17, 2016 -
Successful Marketing Solutions in Inglewood, California, has announced the launch of their new Luxury Vacation Club through the company's Best Online Business Travel website. The club will provide members with all-inclusive travel deals.

Robert Boyd, Sr, founder and CEO of Successful Marketing Solutions, says, "We've designed our club to offer the very best in travel deals for members. We're excited about its launch and hope that travelers will take advantage of the savings."

Boyd says that the vacation club membership allows members to travel in the lap of luxury, without the high price tag. He states that personal concierges will book luxury five star vacations at three and two star prices, saving travelers potentially thousands of dollars on family vacations, honeymoons, and other trips.

"We're offering the best vacation club memberships you can possibly experience," Boyd says. "And, if you refer your friends, you could enjoy free membership, so you're saving even more."

Boyd says that every member that refers three friends who also join will no longer be required to pay a membership fee. He states that the membership entitles travelers to a number of deals, and allows them to relax and let someone else do all the booking for them.

Members enjoy exclusive travel deals that are not offered to the general public. Boyd says that this is a perk of membership and one that travelers tend to enjoy, as they can travel to a number of destinations and stay in the best resorts, for less than half the cost in some cases.

The club guarantees the best possible price for members, and offers some last minute deals that make it easier for travelers to find the accommodations and travel arrangements they need. Boyd states that the club entitles members to a 110 percent club membership best price guarantee, so they know that their travels are at the best possible price. Deals can include a number of amenities in addition to accommodations, the company states so that travelers have all of their vacation needs handled in one place.

More about the new club and the benefits of joining can be seen on the website.
