October 17, 2016 -
Successful Marketing Solutions, a company based in Inglewood, California, has recently announced that they are now offering an exclusive luxury vacation club through their Best Online Business Travel website. Members of this new club are provided with all-inclusive travel deals to luxury destinations all over the world.

Robert Boyd, Sr., founder of the company, says that members will have access to a number of locations, and a host of amenities through the program. He states, "Whether you want to soak up the sun in Cabo San Lucas or you prefer a walk on the wild side and want to go bungee jumping or take a helicopter tour of Aruba, there is going to be a package that is just right for you."

Boyd states that this is one of the best vacation club memberships launched in many years, and that the perks are perfect for those taking family vacations, planning a honeymoon, or anyone who just loves to travel. He states that there are literally thousands of options available with numerous possibilities for amenities, accommodations, and activities.

"Our club membership allows you to travel like a king but pay like a pauper," Boyd says. "Where else could you possibly enjoy five star luxury vacations at a two star price tag?"

Boyd explains that members of the club will have access to exclusive travel deals that other consumers cannot take advantage of. He points out that the club is much less expensive than a timeshare, which is something that many consumers have today, and that there is no maintenance or worries of assessment fees or other related costs.

In addition, Boyd says that with club membership, consumers have no worries of having to plan and schedule their travels. Club membership includes a personal concierge who takes care of all travel arrangements, leaving the travelers to simply pack and get ready for their destination.

The company states that they have connections with other travel businesses and are able to provide members with deals that they cannot get anywhere else. Those interested in learning more about the new travel club and possible destination locations, can visit the Best Online Business Travel website.
