

Luxury Vacation Club Launches All-inclusive Travel Deals For Couples

October 17, 2016

October 17, 2016 -
Successful Marketing Solutions in Inglewood, California, recently launched a new luxury vacation club through its bestonlinebusinesstravel.com website that helps travelers to save substantial amounts of money when booking vacations and getaways. The company has now added that romantic getaways for couples are part of those luxury vacation deals.

"Couples need time together, away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life," says Robert Boyd, Sr, CEO of the company. "We've put together some great deals that offer all-inclusive travel destinations and packages for couples to enjoy."

Boyd says that these deals can be used for honeymoons or simply a weekend getaway, and that those with memberships in the luxury vacation club will enjoy savings as well as the perks of having their own concierge to handle all of the fine details of their trip. The company books vacation packages for members, offering hundreds of destination options and a number of activities that couples can enjoy while they are vacationing.

"Whether you want to sit by the beach all day, enjoy a helicopter tour of a historic town, or even ski to your heart's content, we have packages that are going to make your romantic getaway perfect," Boyd says.

Boyd states that members of the luxury vacation club will not only enjoy savings and booking privileges, but they can also often get booked into places that they would otherwise have difficulties getting to. Vacation packages to destinations like Aruba, Mexico, and various beaches in the United States are common choices among couples. Boyd states that they can find and book the perfect vacation and help couples to better afford the ability to get away from it all for just a while.

Boyd says that many couples have taken advantage of the membership's discounted rates to Tropicana Aruba Resort and Casino, which is one of the most luxurious and romantic resorts in the Caribbean. Other destinations are available as well for those who have a membership in the club, and travel is often discounted by more than half of the cost of booking without the club.

More on the destinations available and club specifics can be seen on the company's Best Online Business Travel website.
