

The ProMedia Group Audio Visual Specialists Expand to Atlanta, Georgia

September 13, 2016

Tampa, Florida - September 13, 2016 -
The ProMedia Group, the well-known audio visual consultants and installers based in Florida have expanded all the way across to Atlanta, Georgia. This move comes after increasing demand from consumers based in the state of Georgia. Thanks to this expansion, Georgia-based consumers can now also avail the company?s stellar audio visual consultation services along with complete design, integration, and installation of commercial AV systems including high definition video conferencing.

The most notable feature of the company?s services is that the ProMedia Group takes the initiative to assist their clients in every way possible. This includes guiding the client through every step of the process, from consultancy, to design, to integration. The complete range of audio visual services being provided by the company in Atlanta includes the following:

Audio Video Installations

Conference Rooms

Digital Signage

High Definition Video Conferencing

Video Walls

With its top notch services, the company will also be bringing the high quality products of a wide range of esteemed brands that the company shares association with. These brands include Altona, Sharp, Symetrix, Clickshare, Polycom, Brightsign, and Cambridge. Thanks to their connections to this exclusive group of professional AV solution manufacturers, the ProMedia Group only deals with the latest technology.

While the audio visual consultants and installers are primarily targeting businesses and educational institutions, the commercial audio visual design and installation services are indeed available for all. Moreover, according to the detailed interview of the spokesperson of the company during a press conference, there?s a lot more to the solutions being offered.

?Our expert professionals can handle everything from repair, rack installation, TV installation, video wall installation, and much more,? said the spokesperson. He further added, ?Needless to say, we are the best at video conferencing solutions and we hope to bring the same quality to Atlanta.?

The spokesperson also expressed the company?s mindset going into the Atlanta market. ?We?ve already established ourselves as a dominant member of the Florida AV industry thanks to both our offices in Tampa and Sarasota Florida. We are indeed quite excited at the prospect of this expansion and are confident that it won?t take long for us to lead the market in the state of Georgia as well.?

Clients based anywhere in Atlanta or other service areas of the company can dial 1-800-881-6887 today for a free audio visual consultation. For more information on the ProMedia Group and their services, visit the company?s official website at http://thepromediagroup.com.
