September 14, 2016

September 14, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Falcon Relocation has expanded its services to include those moving out of Phoenix to anywhere in the United States.

Alongside their local, commercial, and storage transport services, Falcon Relocation provides long distance moving throughout the nation. With complimentary consultations, as well as onsite estimates, they will work to simplify a cross-country move. The company aims to satisfy customers using their core values of transparency, value, efficiency, and care.

Falcon Relocation provides moving assistance for residential homes, condominiums, and apartments, along with business offices or warehouses, and storage containers. Their services include:

Packing and unpacking

Loading and unloading

Moving within the home and rearranging

Driving and transferring

Storage

The fully licensed and insured transportation company adhere to industry standards, and are regulated by the necessary governing bodies to ensure expectations are met. As mandated by Federal regulations, each customer is presented with a copy of Your Rights And Responsibilities When You Move to provide them with security. For a free nationwide, or local, transport quote, visit their website at www.falconrelocation.com. Their website is also a resource to find what customers have said about Falcon Relocation's services.

Falcon Relocation is a family owned and operated moving company, that has built its reputation on its customer care, focussed on honesty, transparency, and efficiency. With competitive and affordable moving services offered to their clients, they work to keep an open line of communication throughout each move. They understand how important each item is to their customers, and will ensure that nothing bad happens to them.
