

DUI Consultant Services Now Offered By Gryphon Consulting

September 14, 2016

September 14, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Gryphon Consulting, a licensed and bonded investigation firm, allows drivers who have been accused of operating a vehicle while under the influence of drugs or alcohol prove their innocence.

Gryphon Consulting has added DUI Consulting as a part of its basic services, allowing anyone who has been involved in a DUI charge the chance to have their case investigated. Those who have, or who are representing someone who has, been charged with a DUI can contact Gryphon Consulting for further investigation pertaining to the case.

From investigating police reports, documents filed, and all other paperwork associated with the DUI case, Gryphon Consultants checks to see whether or not proper protocols were followed by law enforcement officials. Further information looked for by the consultants include:

Where the roadside incident occurred, and where the Field Sobriety Test was performed

How the Breath Test Operator procedure occurred, who performed it, and what his or her training was

Intoxilyzer detailed history

Audio and video surveillance evidence reviewal

Accident reconstruction if an injury occurred

With two out of three people being involved in a DUI accident, Gryphon Consulting wants to ensure that the correct person is held responsible. They have the knowledge of what a police officer endures in their training, and are familiar with the policies and procedures of a DUI. Performing an investigation of the events can allow Gryphon Consulting to determine a wrongful charge.

From background checks to domestic investigations, the team of professional consultants at Gryphon Consulting are discreet and efficient at gathering the necessary information. Their services benefit business owners and individuals who need to learn more about someone in their lives. They operate under the strictest of confidence and always deliver results.
