

Smartwatch Panda Provides Complete List Of The Most Affordable Smartwatches

September 15, 2016

September 15, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Smartwatch Panda releases a list of cost-effective smartwatches, that perform as well as the more expensive ones on the market, at a much less price.

Smartwatch Panda, a website with the mission to provide reviews and necessary information about the fairly new technology, has compiled a list of available smartwatches at a lower price than the better known brands. Through in depth reviews on each product, and descriptive factors as to what makes them comparable to their biggest competitions, there is enough information for readers to make an informed decision.

Links to each product are also provided for those with the intent to purchase a smartwatch. When comparing each affordable product, Smartwatch Panda follows a criteria that compares the inexpensive options to the expensive ones. Some of the key features that are looked at for these smartwatches are:

Android or iOS operating systems

Fitness applications, or other form of exercise platform, built in

Heart rate monitor included internally, or able to work with an external recording device

Variety of applications within various categories

Ability to receive text message, email, and other notifications

Bluetooth and/or Wi-Fi connectivity

This website also provides information on expensive, better known smartwatches, and also provides technical information for those who want to learn more about the devices. Visit their website at www.smartwatchpanda.com to learn more.

Smartwatch Panda is a website designed to roundup the best, most up to date information on smartwatches from around the world. Its aim is to become an authority in the field of wearable technology, with an emphasis on smartwatches.
