Collection Services Inc. Will Be Closing Down Their Pensacola Location on November 11th

September 21, 2016

September 21, 2016 -
Pensacola?s leading debt collection services, Collection Services Inc., will close down their office on November 11th. For this day, Collection Services will not be doing their business in order to let all their staff and customers to have the holiday and use their day for something more important. They will resume business in the next regular business day.

Collection Services, Inc. has been the leading debt collection service provider in Pensacola for over 50 years. They serve clients from all over America as a reliable partner to those in need of bad debt recovery services as well as accounts receivable collections, two of the main services that Collection Services, Inc. readily provides their clients.

For an effective debt collection service, they make use of state-of-the-art technology in managing accounts receivable. At the same time, their collectors are all but highly-trained, polite and very professional staff. This makes Collection Services, Inc. a one-stop for every one?s needs in terms of debt collection and bad debt recovery needs.

Since 1955 when it was first founded, CSI?s goal remains the same. Their goal is to collect the most money within the shortest possible amount of time, while at the same time retaining their customers? goodwill. With that goal in their mind, they are able to provide their work in the most professional and cordial way without earning the ire of their clients.

They are able to make all these possible by utilizing the best technology and enlisting the help of the best professionals. Thus, they remain the number one trusted debt collections agency in U.S. and even in countries near.

With powerful partnerships with government agencies and business from all over America, they cannot be toppled as the best in the collections industry. They are also a big help for clients who needs help in increasing their cash flow by leveraging the power of world-class systems.

On November 11th, however, they will be closed down for business in order to give way for the celebration of Veteran's day. It is a day dedicated for the departed and the saints that must be honored. For that reason, they give early announcement to their clients to expect that Collections Services, Inc. will not be on business during that day.
