September 21, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Bardach Awards is now offering custom corporate awards, Plaques, trophies and engraving for the guaranteed satisfaction of clients.

The aim of the company is to increase the awareness of people to a premier source of small and large awards.

Being a third generation company, it was actually founded in the Broad Ripple neighborhood of the state of Indianapolis. It was also managed and owned by Diane-Bardach-Beck with Ryan and Steve as the main key leaders in the business. Each of them has their twelve years of experience in the industry backed by their dedication and family vision. The experience of the seasoned staff is also enough to meet the standard of excellence of clients.

Only the finest materials are utilized in the creation of products like art glass, executive glass, stone art, plaques, crystal, acrylic, medals, eagle collection, star performer and more. The company is the premier source of products personally inspected from the beginning until the manufacturing process.

In addition, the products pass through a quality assurance check that complements to the Bardach standard of excellence. Among other products offered to clients include recognition plaques, clocks, desk accessories, donor wall recognition, name badges, industrial marking, trophy cups, exclusive level recognition, digital clear glass plaques, piano finish plaques and more.

Only the most customized programs are created by the sales team to complement well to the special occasion of clients. For any unlimited or modest budget, they are also ready to work with that while following the best fashion. They also work hard to meet the demands for different and new products by investing in the latest equipment and technology like new fiber-mark laser that marks logos, bar codes, serial numbers and matrixes on surfaces. These surfaces usually include bare metals, brass, alloys, aluminum, stainless steel, ceramics, engineered plastic and titanium.

?We are pleased of the wonderful and positive feedbacks received by our company from our clients. These remarks stand true to our quality products, service and reputation. Our art stuffs look so great especially when displayed at our stations for the guests to see.?- Diane Bardach

It is expected that more people will be interested in purchasing custom Corporate Awards, plaques, trophies and engraving that meet their preference. With the company founded and known for its reputation for service, integrity and quality, it is expected to deliver orders in an accurate and timely manner.
