May 21, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Deb Holder to Manage Harbor City Communications

Rockledge, FL, May 6, 2015. Harbor City Capital Management (<http://harborcitycapital.com/>) has appointed Deb Holder as Director of Communications for the Harbor City group of companies.

Holder has 16 years' experience teaching writing and communications at the collegiate level. She also brings nine years' copywriting experience to the company, working with industry leaders in a variety of niche markets as a copywriter and ghostwriter.

Holder is responsible for directing and managing internal and external communications of the Harbor City group of companies as well as social media. She says, "Harbor City Capital Management is a game-changer in its niche markets, and I look forward to developing and implementing communications strategies that will effectively promote our message to the public."

JP Maroney, CEO, said this about Holder. "Internal and external flow of information within any organization is vital, especially one growing as fast as we are at Harbor City Group. I knew we had to find a strong leader to pull together all resources, information, and communications, and Deb Holder is the perfect fit as our new Director of Communications."
