LAS VEGAS -- United Van Rentals, the leader in the passenger van rental industry, today announced its Las Vegas van rentals office will be expanding to include service to McCarran Airport.

The company, which prides itself on customer service, has been commissioned by McCarran Airport and the Department of Aviation to shuttle customers to and from the airport to their office.

"We are excited about joining the Clark County Department of Aviation McCarran International Airport General Ground Transportation Program," says Business Manager Louis Della Penna. "This new service will enable us to cater to the diverse needs of customers and make it easier to do business with the company."

United Van Rentals, with over seven years in the van rental industry, specializes in all size passenger van rentals: full size 8 passenger vans with extra luggage space, 8 passenger minivans, 11 passenger vans with extra luggage space, 12 passenger vans, 15 passenger vans and cargo vans. New luxury additions to the fleet include the 12 passenger low roof Ford Transit van with extra luggage space, 15 passenger low roof Transit Van and the 15 passenger High Roof Transit Van with extra luggage space.

With offices in Las Vegas and corporate headquarters in Irvine, California, United Van Rentals also services Phoenix Sky Harbor Airport and ALL major airports in California.
