

Harbor City Capital Management Announces New Project Manager

May 21, 2015

May 21, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Rockledge, FL, May 5, 2015. Harbor City Capital Management is pleased to announce the appointment of Skye Mangrum as Project Manager. Mangrum is responsible for controlling the organization of projects and personnel. She has 15 years' experience working with industry leaders in Internet marketing, advertising, marketing, list management, joint ventures, and copywriting.

"As a team leader, I have a dedication to studying statistics and a passion for inspiring others to push themselves to reach their highest potential," said Mangrum. "Everyone has a place where they shine; I get those people what they need to be successful and the most effective at what they do. I also keep our investors and managers in the know and happy with clearly outlined projects, which is my #1 priority."

CEO of Harbor City Group, JP Maroney, said this about Mangrum. "When seeking a strong leader who could head up our Central Resources Team, I knew we needed someone with the right combination of project management, online marketing, and team leadership experience. Skye Mangrum brings the right mix to our team, and we anticipate significant performance from her business unit."
