Purcellville, VA - Jenaluca?s flagship product, their kitchen herb scissors, has been featured in Womens? Health Magazine's October 2016 issue. Womens? Health magazine is one of the top women?s magazines on the market with over 1.5 million circulation globally. The Jenaluca stainless herb scissors is featured in the Fancy Food Scissors corner where three kitchen scissors are presented. The page asked ?What can these specific shears do that your all-purpose can?t?? The Jenaluca Herb Scissors, pictured in the middle, states that ?With 5 blades on each side, one cut is equals to 10 knife cuts.?

?We were very honored when Women?s Health contacted us to ask us if they could feature our herb scissors in their October issue. Of course we said yes! It was exciting to go to the store and pick up the magazine and see our kitchen scissors in there. Women?s Health is a great magazine and being within those pages is an honor,? said Nancy, a company representative for Jenaluca.

According to Jenaluca, their stainless steel herb scissors ?Save time and hassle.? The tedious mincing and chopping is eliminated when using this herb chopper. Two snips with the sharp, finely balanced 5 blades equals 10 knife chops.

The herb shear has a cleaning comb at end of the blade that can push stubborn clinging herbs right off. The protective cover and the comfortable handles are one of the assets of Jenaluca Stainless Herb Scissors. The accessory cover protects the five blades of the herb cutter when stored.

The Jenaluca Stainless Steel Herb Scissors is sold exclusively on the Amazon marketplace for online shoppers. The kitchen tool is sold at affordable price and comes with an unconditional lifetime guarantee.
