La Mesa Carpet Cleaning has recently announced that they are celebrating their fifth year anniversary of providing services to customers in La Mesa, California. In celebration of this milestone, the company states that they are now offering a mobile friendly website for customers to get a better idea of the services they provide and allow them to contact the company if those services are needed.

Charles Hermosillo with the company says, "We are excited to have reached our five year mark and we wanted to do something amazing for our loyal and future customers. We feel that this new mobile friendly website will help area residents and business owners to get a better feel for what we do and for why our customers have been coming back to us again and again over the years."

Hermosillo says that the company will continue to offer quality commercial and residential carpet cleaning services, which include pet stain and odor removal, rug cleaning, and upholstery cleaning. The company currently provides services all over San Diego County, California, and the main focus of that service area is in San Diego's East County.

In addition to the new site, the company can also be reached on their official Facebook page, where Hermosillo says customers can connect with them on a more personal level. "We regularly interact with our Facebook followers," he states. "We feel that it is this personal level of commitment to your satisfaction that has kept us in business this long, and we don't plan to change that anytime soon."

The company states that another reason for their having thrived for five years is the fact that they hire technicians that are local residents. They work in the community and for the community, with a strong focus on customer satisfaction. Hermosillo says that all of the technicians they hire are highly qualified and offer the utmost in professionalism and respect for their customers.
