October 12, 2016

October 12, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Maria Serbina, CEO of PineLift, Inc., announced the launch of the company's new website connected to the company branching out into new markets and creating a new division. The website is designed with expanding number of consulting clients in mind.

The website is built on WordPress with the liquid theme. The site is mobile friendly and easy to navigate. The main goal of the website is to build visibility on Google and Bing search engines, create congruency with social media platforms across the board and drive web traffic.

The website architecture, SEO, and content were designed by Maria Serbina, MBA E-Business, who has an extensive experience in web programming, website design, and online marketing. She has been helping entrepreneurs and local business owners to build a web presence for more than 7 years.

Serbina stated, "The goals for CreateBrandVisibility.com website were to provide the end user with a great searching experience that was based on intuitive approach, valuable engaging content, and the opportunity to apply for working with my company as a consulting or coaching client.?

Serbina said that the prospective and present clients will have the option to watch livestream every week on the website with valuable business and marketing tips. The livestream will be broadcasted on Periscope and Google Hangouts and posted on the website blog.

The website has a variety of free marketing and business resources for small business owners and entrepreneurs, including a free guide called, ?10 Critical Questions to Ask the Web Designer BEFORE You Pull Your Credit Card Out? and Serbina?s latest book ?If I Can Find You in 3 Seconds You Don?t Exist: Being Findable Online for Ultimate Visibility & Profits.?
