October 14, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Collection Services Inc., the company that has been in the service of debt collections in Pensacola for 55 years, proceeds on a business merge with Gulf Coast Collection Bureau to provide clients improved one-stop place for their debt collection needs. In addition, the company is also preparing to move to Sarasota by November 1st.

55 years and counting, the CSI has been serving clients in collections in Pensacola, helping them on their bad debt recovery needs as well as accounts receivable collections. In the same way, Gulf Coast Collection Bureau has been on the service of transforming bad debt to positive cash flows for all the clients across the U.S. Now both companies will provide their service hand in hand, ensuring that clients will have a one-stop place for all their needs.

Gulf Coast Collection Bureau is a certified agency that has established its name in the accounts receivable management industry since it began its operations back on 1978. The agency has helped a lot of its clients all over the U.S. in transforming their bad debt into it a progressive cash flow in a way that is quick, easy and professional.

With CSI and GCCB now merging into one, they strive to much better provide for the needs of their clients. As both are leading agencies in the industry, they are positive that they can put the level of their service on the next level. Gulf Coast Collection Bureau's base of operations is in Sarasota, Florida and CSI prepares to move their base of operations to the same place.

The owner of CSI, Jeff Powell, is quite positive in this new development. With this, he believes that they can better serve different clients and handle different accounts not only commercial, healthcare organizations, utility companies, dentists, etc. They also wish to utilize Gulf Coast Collection Bureau's technology on accounts receivables management.

Additionally, Gulf Coast Collection Bureau has adapted their processes to fit the changing times and that can certainly serve well to the clients of CSI. The Collection Services Inc. is positive that this partnership will bode well for all the clients off not only CSI but the Gulf Coast as well.

With their services both improved and adapted to consumer needs, clients from across U.S. will surely have a one-stop place where their bad debt recovery needs can be resolved with ease. For 55 years and counting, CSI has been the best in what they do and definitely deliver the best results.
