Troy Warren, host of LetsTalkBusinessRadio.Com, announced today the launch of eBarterExchange.Com in Cleveland, OH. Warren has appointed Ann Rusnak as the Trade City Ambassador. Rusnak coordinates Trade and Networking Events for business owners in the greater Cleveland area.

Warren said, "I am thrilled to be introducing Ann to the eBarterExchange Cleveland members. Ann has a long and successful business history and the members will really benefit from her knowledge."

Ann Rusnak can be reached at (216) 941-7059 to learn more about the Cleveland eBarterExchange as well as arranging to speak about barter at business networking events.

Rusnak said, "I've used barter for years to start and grow my business but found it limiting in using it. The Cleveland eBarterExchange makes it easier and opens the doors to unlimited possibilities to find what you need. More importantly it gives you an unfair edge in the marketplace by putting your business in front of so many others who could use what you offer but who would never know you existed in the first place. That got me excited and I can't wait to share this opportunity.?

eBarterExchange.com is launching in major metropolitans all across the USA and each has a Trade City Ambassador to facilitate trade and networking events in each city while the company supports the Members and Trade City Ambassadors from its offices in Chandler, AZ and Evanston, IL.

Warren commented, ?I am truly excited to be launching the eBarterExchange network because it helps all business owners leverage their goods and services and increase their buying power and reduce expenses at the same time. The barter industry has truly helped business owners particularly in down economies like we have experienced since 2008. Barter transactions have climbed over $16 billion annually in the USA alone and there does not seem to be an end in sight.?

Troy Warren is writing a book on all facets of barter and trade entitled ?The Forgotten Currency: Barter For What You Want Without Using Cash? that reveals how to increase revenues and decrease expenses.
