May 21, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Total Paintball Gear is excited to announce that Spyder Fenix Paintball Guns have now been restocked on its online store. The announcement is especially targeted at those who have tried to purchase these guns from its online store over the past few weeks. It is intended to inform them that the guns are now available on the company's online store.

Over the past few weeks, shoppers who have visited the Spyder Fenix display page have found a message reading: "Sorry, these guns are currently out of stock." This has been a source of frustration, especially for ardent fans of the Spyder Fenix. Thanks to Total Paintball Gear's recent restocking, Spyder Fenix aficionados can now acquire their favorite marker.

To mark the restocking, Total Paintball Gear will be offering free shipping for all Spyder Fenix Paintball Gun purchases. The free shipping is the company's way of attempting to compensate shoppers for the frustrations they experienced over the past few weeks.

According to sources at Total Paintball Gear, the Spyder Fenix Paintball Guns recently stocked are the most popular currently on the market. The model which they have is the Kingman 2012 Spyder Fenix. This model is currently the best selling Spyder paintball gun. Its best-selling status is because of a combination of a sleek design, professional performance and an affordable price.

This gun features an 11-inch micro ported barrel, a 3 way adjustable magnetic response "Saber" Trigger and an Anti-Chop System. It also has a Leap II circuit board and an Eko Valve System. These features give it the capacity to make up to 1600 shots from a 20 oz capacity CO2 tank. This makes the Spyder Fenix one of the best performing paintball guns within its price range.

Total Paintball Gear's recent restocking provides an opportunity for any paintball player to acquire the Kingman 2012 Spyder Fenix at just $149.99. Whoever desires to purchase this marker can visit its display page at www.totalpaintballgear.com/kingman-2012-spyder-fenix-paintball-gun-silver.html.

However, Total Paintball Gear offers more than just an opportunity to purchase individual Synder Fenix guns. Shoppers can also purchase what the store refers to as "Mega Sets". Each Mega Set contains a Spyder Fenix gun, a paintball mask, 6 pods of paintballs, Super Slick Gun oil and a cleaning squeegee. The Mega Set enables a shopper to acquire every necessary paintball accessory in a single purchase. This makes them perfect especially for paintball beginners.

Ultimately, Total Paintball Gear's recent restocking provides shoppers with an opportunity to purchase Kingman 2012 Spyder Fenix Paintball Guns and enjoy free shipping. Therefore, anyone who is on the lookout for a sleek, high-performance and affordable marker should make the most of this opportunity.
