October 24, 2016 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

CARN offers information and support for those who are experiencing addictions. The areas of concern include drugs, alcohol and gambling addiction.

Burk's Falls ON: Canadian Addiction Recovery Network is pleased to announce the launch of its new website designed to assist Canadians with substance and other addictions including drug and alcohol, as well as gambling. The organization is dedicated to setting a high standard for the entire industry and personnel who participate. A clear statement of mission and core value is included on the website in order to explain the principles and practices which are part of the operating design.

CARN has a primary goal of assisting men and women affected by addiction and help them to take the needed steps to get and maintain recovery. The organization hopes to provide those of every background, age, gender or personal experience with substance abuse with the change of recovery. The organization is dedicated to personal assistance to all who come for help. Both addicts and families are personally helped through the actions of the professional team.

The website at www.canadianaddictionrecoverynetwork.ca provides a description of their vision for service. They work to create a continuum of effective, high-quality treatment services and to become the supplier of the best alternatives with a national reputation for client-centered Addiction Recovery programs that are second to none and succeed with the highest success rates in the country.

The core values of the organization begin with client-centered care as the highest priority. It takes precedence over other responsibilities. The organization ensures that each client receives adaptive and individualized care which is focused on the specific needs of the person. The core value list continues with innovative practices, dignity, and respect for each individual, safe environments and practices, integrity, enlightened leadership and teamwork. The Canadian Addiction Recovery network organization and its members also hope to improve the level of national awareness in struggling with the health challenges facing individuals and communities with addiction issues.
