Tisha's Choices in Vancouver, Washington, provides a wide range of consumer products. Jillian Gregg with the company has announced that many of those products will be part of the company's Lightening Deal on the Amazon marketplace. The Lightening Deal is scheduled for October 31, 2016 at 5:50 p.m.

"If you're looking to get a jump on your holiday shopping, this is the place to be," says Gregg. "We're offering great deals on our stocking stuffer hair bows for girls, but you can only get those discounts when you buy during the Lightening Deals."

Gregg states that the company is offering additional Lightening Deals on various other products, and that customers can keep watch to see when those other products will go on sale. She states that their hair bows are a great choice for girls of all ages, and that they make great stocking stuffers.

"And at the price that they will be available," says Gregg, "you can buy a set for every little girl in your life."

The company states that they have decided to offer Lightening Deals on their products in an attempt to help customers better enjoy their holiday shopping by offering them steep discounts on the products that are included. This particular sale is only for the girls' hair bows, but Gregg says that other products by Tisha's Choices, as well as ZombieDisasterKits.com will also be offered at discounts on other Lightening Deal dates and times.

Gregg says that those interested in seeing more about the Tisha's Choices product on Amazon can visit the company's official seller's page before the Lightening Deals date and time to get an idea of the product that is being offered for sale. Reviews from various customers can also be seen on the Amazon page, along with a detailed description of what is included in the purchase.

Gregg did not state the actual discount that customers will be entitled to receive during this sale period but did say that they would be "pleasantly surprised at the low cost for the hair bow set."

Those interested in other products or upcoming sales can see more on the company's Amazon page.
