

Total Paintball Gear Announces VForce Grill Paintball Masks Now On Sale

June 03, 2015

June 03, 2015 - PRESSADVANTAGE -

Total Paintball Gear is excited to announce an 18% discount on all the VForce Grill Paintball Masks on its online store. The discounts are intended for paintball enthusiasts who are shopping for a high-quality single-lens paintball mask. The goal is to offer them an opportunity to purchase the VForce Grill at a bargain.

The VForce Grill is one of the most popular single-lens paintball masks on the market. Its popularity arises from the fact that, unlike other single-lens masks, the VForce Grill isn't prone to fogging. The reason for this is that it is fitted with a thermo-cured lens which has an inbuilt anti-fogging mechanism.

This mask is also comfortable, well ventilated, robust and easy to maintain. It also has an upgrade capability which enables a user to replace its default lens with a thermal-lens. These attributes make the VForce Grill a highly recommended mask especially for paintball beginners and occasional players.

The discounts announced by Total Paintball Gear offer such players an opportunity to purchase the VForce Grill at a fraction of its market price. As such, rather than pay its normal price of $109.95, shoppers purchase it at $89.95. This means that shoppers can save $20 per purchase - a considerable sum in the context of paintball masks.

According to sources at Total Paintball Gear, their goal is to provide every paintball player an opportunity to purchase a VForce Grill with suits their stylistic preferences. As such, the masks are available in a range of delightful colors. The color options include black, white, reverse olive and charcoal.

The range of colors means that shoppers can acquire paintball masks which can satisfy their esthetic needs as well. This is important because players choose paintball masks not just for their protective attributes, but also for their look and feel. The color choices mean that whoever purchases a VForce Grill can get the full package.

Therefore, anyone shopping for a reliable single-lens paintball mask would certainly benefit from a VForce

Grill. Total Paintball Gear's discounts mean that the masks are currently available on the cheap. As such, every paintball player ? especially beginners and occasional players ? needs to take advantage of this opportunity.
