Thanks to a recent announcement made by Total Paintball Gear, a premium distributor of paintball equipment, they recently announced the unveiling of the Azodin Kaos Paintball Marker on its online store.

The unveiling means that for the first time ever, shoppers will now be able to purchase the Azodin Kaos from Total Paintball Gear. This provides a unique opportunity to shoppers, given the reputation which the company has built over the years. Total Paintball Gear is renowned for supplying top-quality paintball equipment at competitive prices.

In keeping with this reputation, Total Paintball Gear is offering the Azodin Kaos at a 10% discount. This makes the markers, which are already renowned for their affordability, even more affordable. For shoppers, the discounts mean that they can acquire one of the most reliable speedball markers on the cheap.

The Azodin Kaos is extremely popular with speedball players because it is packed with features which offer a competitive edge. First of all, it is the lightest speedball marker on the market. Weighing only 2.1 lbs, it is perfect for the fast-paced nature of speedball. It also has a 12-inch single piece barrel which gives it pin-point accuracy. It offers semi automatic firing mode.

All these features combine to make the Azodin Kaos very effective for speedball. However, what endears this marker to speedball players is its price. Its market price of $99 is considered extremely cheap given its numerous qualities. The consensus among most speedball players is that a marker of its quality should cost twice as much. Total Paintball Gear's discounts make the Azodin Kaos even more affordable.

According to sources at Total Paintball Gear, the Azodin Kaos in their store is available in different colors. The various color options include blue/silver, gold/black, matte black and matte blue-gray. The choice of colors means that shoppers can acquire markers which suit their stylistic and esthetic preferences.

Ultimately, the Azodin Kaos is considered the perfect choice especially for beginner speedball players. The combination of its great qualities and low price makes it the perfect choice for such players. Total Paintball Gear's discounts have made the marker even more affordable. Therefore, anyone looking for a reliable speedball marker cannot afford to miss this opportunity.

Whoever desires to purchase the Azodin Kaos Paintball Marker should visit the Total Paintball Gear online store at <http://www.totalpaintballgear.com/azodin/>.
