October 26, 2016 -

McW offers stores in Timaru, Dunedin, Queenstown, and Wanaka, as well as Christchurch in order to offer wider service throughout New Zealand. The services are evolving to meet the needs of customers.

Christchurch NZ: McKenzie & Willis is pleased to announce that it continues to look for ways to improve the level of customer service. The professional consultations will assist customers in picking home furnishings for small or large pieces. The complete range of linen & homewares provides decor ideas which can be used to build a home furnishing portfolio that is modern and aesthetically appealing. Bedding, duvets, pillows and pillow protectors are some of the items that are available from the online catalogue or the retail stores.

The one over-riding feature of this category of items is their high quality. Sheets and pillow cases are made of high thread count, fine linen or other materials which stand the test of durability and aesthetic appeal. The customer who is looking for bedspreads, pillow cases, and covers, as well as duvet covers, can find the right size and colour to fit the personal preferences and the decor of the room.

Linen housewares are popular for a wide range of items in the bedroom, bathroom and elsewhere. The durability of items made of this material is notable. The range of colours is another feature which sets it apart from the lower quality home decor and housewares items. Customers who seek quality will always find it in the range of items available from McW.

Blankets and throws are available for those times when a little bit of warmth is required, but too much is unpleasant. The featured products include a Fairydown Espresso Duck Down Blanket and a Bianca Loreenne Kasuri Coverlet. The products are available in a range of sizes and colours. The pieces by Bianca Loreenne are hand-crafted and inspired by the Ikat weaving technique. It is a 100-percent cotton coverlet which is double-sided. The throw comes with matching pillow shams and cushions. It is suitable to use as a full bed covering or in combination with other linens.
