October 26, 2016 -

McKenzie & Willis offer a growing number of products and services to their customers in the retail stores and their online website. The business has an extensive number of products related to home furnishings and housewares.

Christchurch NZ: McKenzie & Willis stores and website are pleased to announce that their range of home products and services continues to expand. The purpose of increased products and services is to improve the purchasing experience of each customer. The product line now includes a selection of outdoor lounge furniture from which to choose. Ideas about possible furnishings for patios, gazebos or other outdoor space are easy to find by searching the website.

The many pieces which are available include day beds and loungers, but also tables of various sizes and shapes. There are also sectional type seating arrangements. Such pieces are suitable for withstanding heat and sunshine, and for precipitation. Teak is a popular material for benches and stools and several pieces are among the inventory listed in the online catalogue. In addition to durability, the lounging pieces are attractive to the eye, with clean and modern lines.

Outdoor dining furniture helps to complete the enjoyment of home owners who want to spend more time in the outdoors. Entertainment of guests at a barbecue or party on the patio or porch is enhanced by the use of tables and seating where food can be placed for convenience. Portico, Devon and Jati and Kevon pieces are among the manufacturers who provide items in the inventory found online.

The quality of the pillow cases which are offered by McW is based on the thread count and the construction of the pieces. Sheridan brand is noted for its quality. The customer can choose king size pillow slips. White linen is a common choice for bed linens, including cases for the pillows, but some cases come in a range of colours or as part of a sheet set. The care in construction makes this brand one which the customer can choose with confidence in its durability.
