October 26, 2016 -

The century old Christchurch firm has been offering top brands from around the globe to customers throughout New Zealand. The items in the inventory are selected for their appeal, durability and quality.

Christchurch NZ: McKenzie & Willis are pleased to announce that they include the highest quality brand names from the world markets in their inventory. Bianca Lorene is one of their top tier manufacturers for bedding, pillows and other decorative pieces. The comforters and shams are designed to provide design and colour elements for a bedroom, irrespective of the style and space. The comforters are available in large or regular sizes, to match the size of the bed. They are warm, yet light weight, the company says.

Pillow shams in Eurosham style, as well as the standard type can be seen in the online catalogue in a range of colours. The pillowcases are included as part of a range of sets in various types and sizes. The manufacturer is noted for the top quality of its products, so that customers can be assured that their bed linens are going to last for many nights of sleeping comfort.

The choice of sheets & pillowcases available from McW is extensive. In addition to Sheridan percale cases, there are also fitted sheets, as well as sets. Sheridan is only one of the top manufacturers that supply products to the company. MM Linen and Bianca Lorene, as well as Seneca products are available online and in the various retail locations around the country.

Dining furniture is another category which is available from a variety of manufacturers and designs. Some of the best known companies are Calligaris and Sketch. Otago and Vincent Sheppard offer chairs for comfort while dining. Other pieces include tables and side furniture. The designs are noted for their clean lines and modern appeal. Tables are of various heights and feature bases which range from pedestal to standard four legs. There are shapes in circle, oval, rectangular and square. Tables suitable for seating two or many more people are also available.
